Detroit Concert Choir

Michael A. Mitchell, Artistic Director

Join us for a 38th season of magnificent music!

The Detroit Concert Choir is Detroit's premiere vocal ensemble, celebrated for exceptional programming and distinctive performances. From masters to modern-day composers and music from around the world, our exciting concert season offers timeless and diverse musical experiences for everyone!

The choir, comprised of 90+ singers from over 35 communities, performs in beautiful and historic churches and performing arts centers throughout metro Detroit. Founded in 1987 by Gordon Nelson, the choir's rich musical heritage includes numerous national and international honors, including Choir of the World.

Fresh from our 2024 European concert tour, we present a season of beauty and light - Luminosity. Come and enjoy a rich tapestry of musical brilliance and the power of great choral music.

*"Thank you for the depth and meaning you bring to the music."
"Every concert is different and I love them all!"*

Our vision is to inspire and enrich lives through exceptional music

Welcome!

I hope that you are as excited about the Detroit Concert Choir as I am. I'm proud to lead this amazing group of singers as we share the light and love of choral music this season. Please join us!
